Last weeks report

From the President

The week's rain finally took its toll and Saturday's games were postponed. Saturday did have its excitement with around 160 people coming to the trivia fun night at Panania Diggers. Many thanks to those who made the effort, I'm sure the kids enjoyed going crazy for 3 hours while their parents relaxed - that was the purpose of the night!!.

Sunday saw our 3 senior teams - 14s, 15s and A grade - do battle. The 14s were up against Dragons and were keen for their first official victory of the season. They played good footy for most of the match and ran out victors 38-8. Good stuff.

Eggy's 15s were also up against the highly ranked Dragons and surprised everyone by shooting to a 12 nil lead, simply by completing their sets. A huge upset was in the making but a couple of dropped balls near our line (shades of the A grade the previous week) saw us drop 6 points behind with 10 minutes to go. Unfortunately we didn't lift for that 10 minutes and the score doesn't indicate how long we were actually in the game for.

The A grade were up against unknown quantity Berala and quickly ran to a 12 nil lead. They thought it was gonna be a cakewalk and went to sleep. With 10 minutes to go, we led 12-10 and clicked up a gear. A converted try saw us put the game beyond reach. Guys, every week I say the same thing - play the whole game.
